AOP-20 Council 2015-16

What is the AOP-20 Council?

AOP-20 is a regional organization of advocates committed to inspiring student success which contributes to the area's future prosperity and quality of life. It is a grass roots collaborative of business, K-12, higher education, philanthropy, organizations, and initiatives that ultimately contribute to the overall well being of the community.

What do AOP-20 Council members do?

❑ Attend 3 Council meetings a year where they will be involved in four activities.

- Collaborate with other regional leaders around topics of common interest and concern
- Engage in learning opportunities on topics related to the council's work
- Participate as an active and/or ad hoc member of a council team
- Receive an AOP-20 "Take Away"

❑ Communicate the work of AOP-20 to others in your own circle of influence.

❑ Seek and share with other council members new strategies to expand the footprint of AOP-20.

Who supports the AOP-20 Council's work?

- Conveners – ESC's and IHE's
- Planning Team – comprised of 12-14 members widely representative of the 9 counties and organizations who meet to plan, organize, support, and evaluate the work of the AOP-20 Council
- Council Teams – Council members who actively engage in teams helping the council reach the goals of the strategic plan.

- Network of Champions – Individuals in positions of influence, widely known by their communities who will share the vision and work of the AOP-20, serve as a sounding board, and connect AOP-20 to other networks, funding sources, legislators, and other opportunities.

- ❖ Ascribe to the AOP-20 Vision
- ❖ Help in sharing the AOP-20 story with others when appropriate
- ❖ As needed, serve as a sounding board and in an advisory capacity to AOP-20 leadership
- ❖ Recommend other network champions
- ❖ Connect AOP-20 to other networks, funding sources, legislators, other opportunities
- ❖ Attend an annual fall Breakfast of Champions-Date: Friday, October 16, 2016, location to be announced at a later date
- ❖ Receives an annual report of the AOP-20 accomplishments
- ❖ Have a standing invitation to AOP-20 Council meetings
- ❖ Support having his/her name listed as an AOP-20 champion
